

The Multi-Agency Gang Unit (MGU), which was formed in 2011, is a group comprised of elite, highly-trained members of the Shelby County Sheriff's Office Narcotics Division, Memphis Police Department Organized Crime Unit as well as the ATF, FBI and the U.S. Marshals.

MGU's mission is to conduct long term investigations on criminal gangs and to dismantle the gang organization as a whole and to disrupt the illegal activities perpetrated by gang members.

In 2014, the Multi-Agency Gang Unit received information regarding a potential organized violent crime ring involving the Playboy Sureños 13 gang that was reportedly operating in the East Memphis/Hickory Hill area. Through an extensive investigation, it was found that several Hispanic gang organizations were committing violent crimes such as Murder, Rape, kidnapping, carjacking, especially aggravated robbery, and aggravated assault. The following are gang organizations that were reportedly involved in committing these crimes in Memphis, TN: Sureños 13, Florencia 13, Tiny Locos Sureños 13, Playboy Sureños 13, Varrio Krunk Town, 901 Sureños and MS-13.

Multiple violent offenders were identified and appended throughout is investigation. This investigation began in 2014 and concluded in 2017.
